Linda Ledger CEO, St Munchin’s Enterprise Centre, Limerick.

I couldn’t leave the book out of my hands until I had finished reading it. The content is brilliant with so many great ideas and suggestions on the development of social enterprise.

Eddie Keher, Kilkenny Hurling Star.

The Enterprising Community is a unique resource and a mine of information for those engaged in developing social, sporting, enterprise and environment projects in local communities.

Walter O Leary, Barrister, New Ross and Waterford Institute of Technology

I have read the book with great interest. It is a marvellous achievement and a blueprint for best practice.

Margaret Murphy, Southern Region Waste Management Office

Senan’s book is a wonderful source of guidance and inspiration to help different communities to develop their own initiatives. The case studies from across the country clearly demonstrate the capacities that communities have to be resourceful and innovative.

Teresa Hinchey, Manager Tipperary Community Council

The “The Enterprising Community” is an outstanding work and I would recommend it to every voluntary community project team and support agency in the country. There is so much useful information in it.
