

SOLA: old Irish word meaning good omen or success

SYMPOSIUM

‘Sustainable Quality in the Community, Voluntary & Disability Sector’

With only 14 days left to the Symposium, the countdown is on. This event is quickly reaching capacity, early booking is advised.

Date: Friday 30th November 2018

Time: 10:00am to 2:30pm

Venue: The Pavilion, University of Limerick

We are happy to announce that The Charities Regulator Interim CEO, Helen Martin, will address the Symposium on the recently launched 'Charities Governance Code'.

Speakers include;

Leigh Gath – HSE Confidential Recipient – Master of Ceremonies

Prof Eamonn Murphy, Emeritus – (UL) ‘Genesis & Development of Standards’

Helen Martin – Interim CEO, Charities Regulator – ‘Charities Governance Code’

John Wilson – Quality Professional and Co-Author ‘Improving Quality’ Standard

Sandra Burke – (WALK) MSc Graduate ‘Lean/Six Sigma in improving C&V HR & IT processes’

Deirdre Nally – (SOLA) PhD Researcher ‘Service-user perspective: Barriers to Quality Improvements’

Other presentations include - The challenges and benefits of implementing a Quality Standard in C&V organisations.

Delegate Fee: €55 Concession fees: Students/OAPs/PWD/DFI Members/Unwaged/Volunteers-Please inquire

Morning refreshments, tea/coffee and Lunch provided. Please let us know if you have dietary or access requirements

To register contact Claire Gallery on 061 202960 or email clairegallery@disability-federation.ie

www.disability-federation.ie/sola/

SOLA – old Irish word meaning good omen or success